Terms and Conditions

- Full payment for each treatment (or package/series) must be made in advance of booking any treatment.
- If a package is discontinued for any reason, the balance may be used for any other service offered. The balance is calculated from the regular full price of all treatments in the series, less the number of treatment(s) received.
- If patient discontinues a treatment package/series for any reason, any discounts applied to the original price will be reverted. This may create a negative balance.
- If a scheduled treatment is missed, the cost of the treatment will be deducted from the available balance.
- Rescheduling must occur at least 2 business days prior to the scheduled appointment or the above will apply.
- Individuals who violate conditions may not be eligible for future specials.
- Special pricing or promotions cannot be combined.
